Profile: I am currently a junior at Abraham Lincoln High School and I am also enrolled in the Academy of Finance. In the academy, I have learned skills that could be applied to the accounting and business world. In this class I have also built on my other skills, such as, being able to communicate to an audience, the ability to be a critical thinker and solve problems quickly, and improving on my technology and computer skills. I can provide to your company in many ways by providing my accounting and business knowledge, technology skills, and ability to communicate and work with others to get work done in a quick efficient way.

Skills:

- · Bilingual Speaks Cantonese and English
- · Advertised Community Events
- · Team Worker
- · Time Management

Education:

- · Abraham Lincoln High School 2013-present
- Expected Graduation at May 2018
- · Currently attend the Academy of Finance 2015-present

Experiences:

· San Francisco Shared Schoolyard Project – Summer Intern – Jun. 2017-August 2017

The San Francisco Shared Schoolyard Project is a citywide organization that opens schoolyards for children on the weekend due to the lack of space in San Francisco. As an intern at this organization, I led tasks such as organizing a female empowerment event and a 3v3 basketball tournament for the poorer neighborhoods in SF. While organizing these events, I also coordinated with venues, catering, and partnerships with the Golden State Warriors and the San Francisco 49ers.

· Heart in Motion – Volunteer Worker – Dec. 2015-present

Heart in Motion is a volunteer organization that allows you to help your community. Every month, I would volunteer in the events to make my community better and improve in my leadership skills during these events. I have earned 40+ hours volunteering with this organization and I have improved on many skills that have helped me to become a better volunteer and leader. I have improved on my leadership skills by being able to communicate to strangers, communicate to my group, and making sure my group stays on task and finishes the job quickly and efficiently.
